

Pastor Henry Hall, Jr.

Pastor Henry Hall, Jr. is the second preacher of five children born to Deacon Henry Hall, Sr. (Deceased) and Mrs. Willie Lee Hall. He is a native Detroiter. He received his formal education in the Detroit Public School System and graduated from Henry Ford High School. Accepting the clarion call of the Master, Pastor Hall studied to show himself approved unto God and thereafter, obtained his BA in Religion and Philosophy from Bishop College, Dallas, TX. He pursued further studies at Dallas Baptist College and Dallas Theological Seminary.

Proverbs 18:16 says: "A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men". God's Word is true and He has allowed Pastor Hall to conduct numerous evangelistic revivals, seminars, and workshops for preachers and pastors throughout the nation. Additionally, he participated in the International Congress for World-Evangelism, Lucerne, Switzerland, Billy Graham School of Education and Campus Crusade Ministries, just to name a few.

Pastor Hall's accomplishments during his 40 years in the ministry have been numerous and blessed by God! Pastor Hall served as Interim Pastor of the Second Chapel Baptist Church, Garland, TX. Pastor Hall also served as the Assistant Pastor of the New Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Highland Park, MI, under the leadership of the late Pastor Jerome Kirby. Pastor Hall also served as interim Pastor of the Second Corinthian Baptist Church, Detroit, MI, ultimately becoming its Pastor in 1997. Following the direction of the Holy Spirit, Pastor Hall renamed the church to Cedar Christian Church ("Cedar") in 2007.

Pastor Hall is divinely anointed and appointed. He is a shepherd after God's own heart. He is well known for his uncompromising integrity and dynamic teaching and preaching ability.

Pastor Hall shares his love through fellowship with others and demonstrates his calling to discipleship with a deep commitment to carry Christ to an unsaved society and by boldly delivering the unadulterated truth, in season and out of season, without fainting, with clarity and with authority.

Pastor Hall is selfless and steadfast in his unreserved efforts to encourage and edify not only the Body of Believers, but to improve the world, one community at a time, both physically and spiritually. He leads with conviction and passion as he presents life-transforming messages that are both practical and engaging.

Pastor Hall has made tremendous strides in ministry. With steps ordered by God and a thankful heart, he continues to do so. He is well respected among his contemporaries and the congregation he has been given charge over. This year he celebrates 23 years in the pastorate--a demonstration of commitment and his personal testimony to the Master.

Pastor Hall has obtained "favor of the Lord" in the finding of his wife, Sharee'. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Harmony Joi and Harlyn Jade.
